The Murray State Aggies fell short in their comeback attempt last night against Paris Junior College. The Aggies came up short 59-49 to the Green Dragons. Murray trailed 30-20 at the half but came out with strangling defense and instant offense by Domonique Godwin. Godwin hit a three pointer, stole the inbound pass and threw down the dunk. The next possession Godwin completed an old fashioned three point play to cut the lead to 2, 28-30.

Paris finally answered at the 16:31 mark to retain the lead, which they never gave up the rest of the way. A great defensive effort by the squad in holding Paris to 59 points.

The next home game will be Homecoming Thursday night against Western Oklahoma State. The next game will be Monday night at Connors in Warner, OK and a return game with Brookhaven on Tuesday, Nov. 24 in Farmers Branch, TX at 7:00 pm
