The Murray State Aggies return to home action tonight against the Paris Junior College Green Dragons. The Green Dragons won the first meeting this season 61-48 on their home floor.

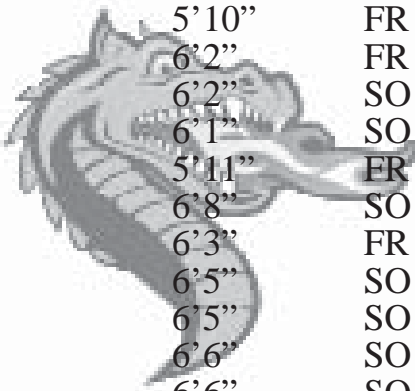

The Aggies are coming off two impressive wins in the Cowboy Classic in Warner. Murray defeated Richland College 83-59 on Friday night behind 20 points from Domonique Godwin. On Saturday the Aggies downed Arkansas Baptist 89-69. A great win considering that Arkansas Baptist will be one of the teams to compete in the always tough Region II tournament to decide who advances to the National Tournament in Hutchinson, KS in March.

The Green Dragons come to Murray State sporting a 6-1 record, suffering their only loss of the season last Friday 74-72 to Neosho at Coffeyville, KS. Their wins this season have come with two wins against Eastern Oklahoma, one from Murray, Oklahoma Baptist JV, Bacone JV and over Coffeyville Comm. College. Paris won the National Championship in 2004-05.

The next home game for the Aggies will be Nov. 17 as they host Brookhaven at 7:00 p.m. at Beames Fieldhouse.
