Associate in Science Degree in Business

Catalog Year 2019-2020

An Associate in Science in Business is designed to prepare graduates from Murray for transfer to a regional or comprehensive university. This degree is a general business Associate of Science degree. When students transfer, they can decide to specialize in specific areas of business such as: Accounting, Economics, Finance, Human Resources, Management, or Marketing. Students interested in transferring to a four-year university should consult with an academic advisor from that school to ensure transferability and completion of the appropriate program electives.
