The funds for the Henry Bridge Scholarship are provided by the Henry Bridge Memorial Trust established by the estate of Henry's son, Maurice L. Bridge. His parents, Henry P Bridge and wife, Nellie Bridge, were immigrants. Maurice lived in Ardmore most of his life. He was an officer in the US Navy during WWII, an investment dealer and the former owner of Bridge's Jewelers. Maurice directed his income estate be used to provide financial assistance for underprivileged, but ambitious young people of Southern Oklahoma seeking post high school vocational or higher education who are unable to do so without financial aid.
